

About the place.

- Formerly a Victorian school built in 1841.
- Became a Community Centre in 1975
- An independent charity owned and run by the volunteer Trustees of the Bradwell Community Centre Trust.
- It exists to provide affordable facilities for the residents of Bradwell and beyond – for a whole range of purposes.
- Extensively refurbished to provide welcoming and comfortable facilities.
- The site also includes a former WW2 'civil restaurant' and school dining room – the Annex.

Opportunities to support the centre:

Be a volunteer to help with the day-to-day running of the centre – keeping the place safe and clean.

Become a trustee to help manage and preserve this historic place

Be part of the Management Team – making sure the place is kept in good order

Donating – because we are independent we rely on our letting fees as well as donations to ensure the centre has a long-term future. If you would like to support it with a donation please contact us.
